Basketry Retreat

But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in it and put it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile.
Exodus 2:3

"Among our people, both men and women were basketmakers. Everything in our lifestyle was connected to those baskets. Our lives were bound the way baskets were bound together."
Susan Billy, Ukiah Pomo, master weaver, teacher

Basket Weaving Retreat

Facilitated by Ruthanne Reed, OP

Creativity leads to deep reflection and contemplation. Through prayer, basket-making, closeness to nature, and reflection, we will relate to the process of our own becoming, healing, and growth. A segment of our time together will be given to learning, in a reflective way, the art of basketry, the oldest art in the history of civilization, thus connecting us with all people and with Earth.

Location: Siena Retreat Center

Date: As arranged between participant(s) and Sr. Ruthanne

Cost: $600 per person for five-day minimum, $120 each additional day.

Includes room and board, daily spiritual guidance, weaving classes and materials.

Siena Center is located along the shores of Lake Michigan. Retreatants are invited to walk the indoor Chartres style and/or outdoor Cretan style labyrinths. The Book Store and Gift Shop includes a wide variety of books on spirituality, prayer, scripture, meditation and more and a broad selection of instrumental, chant, relaxation, and vocal music CDs

Facilitator

Ruthanne Reed, OP, a Racine Dominican, has ministered as a parish pastoral associate, an itinerant missionary preacher and retreat director, and a Montessori educator. She received her spiritual guidance preparation through the training program at Siena Retreat Center.
