This retreat offers the opportunity to learn the art of loom weaving as one experiences a silent retreat and a daily meeting with a spiritual guide. The creation of a weaving will be a process in which one is invited to reflect on the fabric of one's life. The participant will learn the essentials for continued weaving.

A Sponsored
Ministry of the
Racine Dominicans

Location: Siena Retreat Center

Date: As arranged between the participant and Sr. Kathleen

Cost: $600 for five-day minimum,
$120 each additional day.

Includes room and board, daily spiritual guidance, weaving classes and materials.

Siena Center is located along the shores of Lake Michigan. Retreatants are invited to walk the outdoor Cretan style labyrinths. The Siena Retreat Center Book Store includes a wide variety of books on spirituality, prayer, scripture, meditation and more; a broad selection of instrumental, chant, relaxation, and vocal music CDs; and many gift items.

Facilitator

Kathleen Bohn, OP, a Racine Dominican, is a staff member of the Siena Retreat Center. She is a spiritual guide, retreat leader, labyrinth facilitator, weaver, and is deeply committed to Earth.

Kathleen has an MA in counseling, is certified in spiritual direction, has taken the labyrinth facilitator training, and has done work in Jungian psychology and dreamwork. She helped initiate and lives at the Racine Dominican Eco-Justice Center.
